GEORGE LEES CRIME.

Second Day of the New Year's Eve Murder Trial.

The trial of Goorge Lee, charged with the murder of Francis Williams on last new year's eye, was continued in the criminal court, before Justice James, yesterday morning. The cross-examination of Thomas Browner was relie last summer as manager of the summer garden, providing a delightful place of recreation and amusement summer evenings, give him a claim upon the public, which all the theatre goers will recognize. Aside from this the play will be presented in such a manuer as to entitle it to a big house at each performance. The cast includes Mr. William H. Thorne, the beneficiary, Mesars, W. H. Benton and M. Herr, Misses Saxton, McCawley, Wallace, Bonnett and others selected from the most talented amateurs of this city. The stage-setting and everything will be in keeping with the merit of the play, which is one of the best constructed and most beautiful of society plays. amed by Colonel Cook, but nothing new war

Charles Carroll, the next witness, testified

Charles Carroll, the next witness, testified that he was with the party of boys on last new year's ever he met them at Brooks' church; after staying there five or ten minutes they left and went to Lee's shop; a few stopped into Reed's on the way; all of them went into Lee's; Maxwell called for a quart of gip; Lee sold that he did not have it, but would sell them a quart of whisky; Maxwell said that he would take it; Lee asked for the mency first; the boys said that they would not pay before they got if; they did not get the whisky; then some of the boys went up stairs, but not the witness; Lee went up to tell them to come down; some of the boys then came down; Lee then ordered them out; the boys moved kind of slow; Lee told the witness to open the door; he then told the witness to go out and he did so; after he got out he heard the shooting; who was shot he did not know; there were four or five shots; the willness had got across the street before he heard the shooting, and was on the southwest corner of the street; some of the boys came out while in sold a of the street; some of the boys came out while the shooting was going on; Maxwell came scress the street and asked the witness to hold his cost; he took it and placed it on the railing; Maxwell then went back; after that the witness went across the street and saw Finncis Williams lying on the pavement bloody in front of Lee's place; Bray called to Williams re speak to him, but Williams made no answer; the witness helped to carry the boy to the drug store; he saw Williams the next night after he was taken home at his mother's house in Goat alley, and he was dead then.
Cross-examined by Colonel Cook: Witness was put in jail, where he is now confined, for slapping a girl in the face; he had been acquainted with some of the crowd for years; most of them were in the church when the witness got there; he did not know whether or
